DOUBLE~RHYME

Peek-a-boo Sue

*To all my nieces, nephews and their spouses
-- a fine bunch!*

No one went to the Malibu Zoo.
There was not much to see,
and not much to do.

There was a lion, a camel,
and a caribou too,

and just one more,
named Kangaroo Sue.
That was all there were,
and that was just too few.

So up for sale went
the Malibu Zoo!

But look what happened
to Kangaroo Sue.

Up from her pouch popped
a brand new Sue!

Then down she ducked
to hide from you too ...

but popped up again,
to peek-a-boo you!

My, how she tickled
the whole zoo crew!
They quickly named
her "Peek-a-boo Sue"!

The word spread fast!
And a news crew flew

straight to the zoo,
to interview Sue!

So she got on TV and the next thing you knew,

people came running
to the Malibu Zoo!

So many came that
the whole zoo crew

started to build a brand new zoo.

They built a cage where a cockatoo flew

and bought a moose
and a kinkajou too.

My, oh my, how the new zoo grew!

But the star of the show
was Peek-a-boo Sue!

So all together, let's sing to Sue,
and everything she does,

you do too. Peek-a, peek-a Peek-a-boo Sue ...

down,

then UP, to peek-a-boo you!!

Peek-a, peek-a, peek-a-boo Sue,
down, then UP, to peek-a-boo you.

So let's wave bye bye to Peek-a-boo Sue;
Then she can wave bye bye back to you too!

About the Author:

Author/illustrator Dick Punnett grew up in Penfield, New York, and graduated from Principia College in Elsah, Illinois. For over 35 years he has delighted children of preschool to 7 years of age with books that have made learning fun. His series, TALK-ALONG, was published in 1982 and was the first interactive books introduced into the schools. They were best sellers because they taught basic concepts in a very original and clever way, and all in rhyme. He wrote another series called DOUBLE-RHYME, and over the years he has added to both series and also written single story books. Of the 15 books he has authored, seven of them are also illustrated by him. Because he spent a number of years as a writer-cartoonist for a Hollywood animation studio, his illustrations have a special appeal for children. They are perky, funny and expressive.

About the Artist:

Herb Rauh is a versatile artist whose talents range from book illustrating to commercial art and greeting card drawing. He studied art in Massachusetts at the Museum School of Fine Arts, the School of Practical Arts, and at Vesper George, a commercial art school. Herb lives in his adopted state of New Hampshire, in a colonial house that was built in 1734. It is nestled deep in a forest where all the little animals that he loves can be found. Herb has innumerable hobbies, including community theatre. He can be found doing his song and dance on the stage of the Epping town hall almost any time of the year.
